

Monthly Reading: Bringing Characters to Life

Name _____

Book Title _____

	Possible Points	Earned Points
Using sufficient details, one arm describes the setting and the plot.	15
Using sufficient details, one arm describes the physical characteristics and personality traits of the main character.	15
Using sufficient details, one arm describes an important situation the character was faced with as a friend.	15
Using sufficient details, one leg gives an opinion on the character's choice as a friend.	15
The body neatly demonstrates an important scene from the book. The page includes the title, author, and student's name.	10
The assignment is completed in legible cursive.	10
Spelling and grammar are correct throughout the project.	10
The project demonstrates care and quality.	10
TOTAL	100

Comments: